

Opal: Food+Body Wisdom, an eating disorder treatment facility in the University District of Seattle, Washington, offers intensive day treatment as well as outpatient services. We are looking for skilled individuals who want to join our team to provide quality treatment and work alongside a passionate and caring staff.

Job Title: Primary Care Physician or Sports Medicine Specialist for Treatment of Athletes in an eating disorder clinic

Responsibilities:

- Manage sports related injuries and concerns unique to athletes, including Relative Energy Deficiency Syndrome
- Manage outpatient medical complications of eating disorders, ie gastrointestinal issues, endocrinological issues, mental health concerns, etc.
- Collaborate with other members of a dynamic, multi-disciplinary staff
- Option to work with non-athlete clients in higher level of care eating disorder treatment, including assessing exercise clearance level for clients as a part of Opal's Exercise+Sport program

Requirements:

- Doctor of Medicine or Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine
- Board Certified
- Either specialist in sports medicine, personal experience in athletics or strong desire and experience working with athlete population
- Practice medicine and live personally in a way that reflects a non-diet, non-weight biased relationship with food and body
- Experience working with eating disorders and mental health strongly desired
- Comfort with electronic health record systems
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills
- Exhibit a high degree of confidentiality and personal boundary setting

Hours:

Monday – Friday, part or full-time, hours to be determined

Compensation:

- Commensurate to experience
- Part-time Benefits: PTO, retirement account with employer matching
- Full-time Benefits: Medical/Dental/Vision insurance, PTO, paid holidays, retirement account with employer matching, paid continuing education